MANY EVENTS SUPPORTED BY
HONOURY PRESIDENT LORD ELGIN & LADY ELGIN
AND THE COMMUNITY

Oh the Abbot Hoose, the Abbot Hoose,
An' though your rooms are awfy wee,
They are jambang packed wi' artefacts
Laid out for a' tae see.

(O Abbot Hoose)

A garden fu' o' herbs sae sweet,
Wi' statues in each corner neat,
An' here an' there a restful seat,
Just maks this place complete.

Oh Margaret Dean, Oh Margaret Dean,
Sae canty, kind an' crouse,
How mony did ye welcome here,
Tae this dear pink hoose.

When Elspeth King first gingered us
Wi' plans an' schemes sae boldly,
We were fair amazed an' were transformed,
Seeing history sae plainly.

An' ither ladies cleared the grime,
An' artists conjured a honny frieze,
The ghaists o' Abbots of ancient time,
Could barely tak their ease.

Wi' voices sweet an' things tae eat,
It tempts the tourists here,
O Abbot Hoose, O Abbot Hoose,
There's truly nane sae fair.

10th BIRTHDAY ABBOT HOUSE

ABBOT HOUSE

JUBILEE GARDEN PARTY

1ST June 2002 - 12 o'clock at the Cross-Dunfermline. Elizabeth of Bohemia, born 19th August 1596 in the Palace of Dunfermline, daughter of James VI and Anne of Denmark direct ancestor of Her Majesty The Queen, was present along with, dressed for the event in the now retired Provost robes once our youngest and longest serving Provosts Les Woods. When the Piper stopped playing the Drummer pulled in the crowd for the Fanfare and the City Crier read a proclamation to celebrate the Queens fifty years and to invite everyone to the Jubilee Garden Party at Abbot House.

The Ribbons of Praise girls of all ages performed their dance while everyone enjoyed the glorious sun in the south-facing garden opposite the Dunfermline Abbey. The burgers were tasty while Les and his Jazz Band entertained all. The Piper and Drummer drew across from the Abbey a visiting Party of about thirty Hungarian visitors who took quick pictures and disappeared. A lovely 92year old lady with friends, visitors from Stirling, Edinburgh and all over with the prams and dogs enjoyed the flag-flying event. Thanks to donations of the Saltire and Rampant Lion Flags. Thanks for the Red White and Blue bunting lent to us from the City Chambers, and to Tesco Rosyth who gave us a huge picture of the Queen and to everyone who donated, especially their time to make it a great summer day,
